

Brian Hemesath

Brian is the Managing Director of the Global Insurance Accelerator, the world's first accelerator solely focused on the insurance market. The GIA has unprecedented reach with 10 corporate investors (insurance carriers) and over 30 direct carrier connections through their mentor network. They provide $40K of seed capital, mentor speed dating with 90+ insurance-centric mentors and exposure ("demo day") to 500+ insurance executives at the Global Insurance Symposium.

Prior to the GIA Brian started several small ventures. He sold a couple, crashed a couple and one, VolunteerLocal, is alive and growing still today.
