

Gene Meyer, President, Greater Des Moines Partnership. Key responsibilities include supporting the Partnership's role in implementing the region's strategic vision plan, "Capital Crossroads; elevating the alliance between business and education in central Iowa, and developing strategic direction for the next phase of the Partnership's work. Gene has extensive professional and political experience in regional strategy development and implementation. He was elected to the West Des Moines Community Schools Board, serving three terms between 1988 and 1997. He was elected Mayor of West Des Moines, serving between 1997 and 2006. Gene's professional career spans 37 years of service to the State of Iowa's Department of Public Safety, most recently as Commissioner under the appointment of Governor Chet Culver. He earned his Bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice from Parsons College in 1973, and graduated from the FBI National Academy. He earned his Master's in Public Administration from Drake University in 1981. Gene serves as a board member of the Des Moines Embassy Club as well as President of Trustees for the Des Moines Symphony.