

Tiffany Tauscheck, CDME, is the Chief Communications Officer at the Greater Des Moines Partnership, the regional economic development and community development organization. Prior to joining The Partnership, Tauscheck spent eight years leading the Marketing and Development team at the Greater Des Moines Convention and Visitors Bureau as Vice President. Tauscheck's career has also included time as a television reporter at KGAN-TV and FOX 17 News, as well as overseeing the marketing and promotions of six stations at the Des Moines Radio Group.

Tauscheck believes it is one's civic duty to give back to the community. She models this belief through involvement with numerous boards and volunteer committees, including UnityPoint Health – Des Moines Board of Directors, Bravo Greater Des Moines Board, Drake University National Alumni Board, Hospice of Central Iowa Foundation Board, Iowa Cultural Trust Board, Ballet Des Moines Board, Community Foundation of Greater Des Moines Marketing Committee and more.

Due to her supportive family, friends, colleagues and mentors, Tauscheck was the first female to be named Juice Young Professional of the Year in 2011 and the first recipient of the Business Record's Emerging Woman of Influence award in 2014. Tauscheck has also been a Business Record Forty Under 40 Honoree and is a graduate of the Greater Des Moines Leadership Institute.

Tauscheck and her husband, Mark, have two kids, Ty and Tenny. She graduated from Drake University with a Bachelor of Arts in Journalism and Mass Communications, and is a Certified Destination Development Executive.
